The IB Diploma Model
Your subject choices

Candidates select 6 subjects from the following subject groups. Candidates choose at least 1 subject per group. Exception: group 6 (Arts)

Candidates choose 3 IB subjects at Higher Level (HL) and 3 at Standard Level (SL)

More content and teaching in subjects taken at HL; HL subjects are the academic focus.

Certain HL combinations are required by many universities.

Advantages of the IB Diploma

• Internationally accepted certificate / international perspectives
• Having both certificates is a valuable asset in your CV
• The programmes supplement (rather than duplicate) each other
• High specialization in (mostly) small groups
• Holistic approach with extra-curricular activities and personality development
• Excellent preparation for university
• Excellent knowledge in English and how to organise yourself
• Examinations are externally assessed which ensures a high level of objectivity and reliability
IB teacher profile

- Very good command of the English language
- Regular professional development workshops
- Readiness to go the extra mile (e.g. additional tasks which do not exist in the Austrian system like writing references, supervising IAs, teaching in the early evening “graveyard shift“ 😊)
- Monthly team meetings
- International network
- Coordination of two syllabi
